

CHRISTY WILLIAMS

Transform HER with a Word

Christy Williams is a compassionate, transparent, and “keep it real” kind of girl. She loves encouraging women to read, apply, and be transformed by God’s Word. Christy is a gifted writer and speaker. She uses these gifts to help women gain the tools needed to more consistently achieve healthy goals and positive outcomes. This passion is what fuels her messages that enable listeners to:

- Discover how Bible reading equips you to overcome being overwhelmed.
- Disconnect from unhealthy people and practices in order to welcome peace of mind.
- Exchange hopelessness and despair for joy and confidence.
- Embrace a mindset that quiets worry and produces contentment.

A pivotal moment in Christy’s life was when she became her mother’s “personal Bible teacher” while she recovered at home from injuries incurred during the Oklahoma City Bombing in 1995. Christy had the precocious idea that she would continue to take really good notes in the worship service, come home, set up stage (literally), and “teach” it to her mother, ensuring that she too could have an experience with scripture.

It was during this season that Christy felt an intense passion for speaking and inspiring others in a creative and enthusiastic way. By the age of 16, she was delivering weekly Children’s Church lessons during the morning worship service to the entire congregation at her home church.

Christy has since had the opportunity to speak to audiences of all ages and stages of life at several events across the country. These include Sunday Morning worship services, Women’s Day programs, Ladies’ Retreats, and even a college student leadership event where she challenged attendees to lead with integrity. What each of these occasions has had in common is the utterance of a message that Christy truly believes in and strives to carry out daily in her own life.

In 2005, Christy earned a Doctorate of Pharmacy Degree from Xavier University of Louisiana. This accomplishment and the doors it has opened have allotted her a unique perspective from which to address the people she comes into contact with – be it at the pharmacy counter or a speaking event.

Christy is currently involved with her local church, Mount Ararat Baptist in Houston, TX. Here she participates in two ministries: Life Skills Academy, a weekly Bible Study class, and The Marriage Group for couples.

Christy has loved her husband, best friend, confidant, and prayer partner, Byron, for over a decade, and has two daughters whom she absolutely adores. She lives in the Houston, TX area where she spends the majority of her non work time caring for her family, playing Scrabble, and taking naps.

What A Difference A Day Makes

Studying the Bible is a great way to learn more about and grow closer to God. It's what equips us to live the Christian life. Many of us desire this intimacy and growth but we aren't sure how to make this more than a non-existent, weekly, monthly, or crisis- provoked experience. We'd prefer this experience to be a part of our daily routine. In this message, Christy will help you

- Identify, and then overcome, issues that stunt our pursuit of spiritual growth.
- Discover life-enhancing promises and applicable principles of scripture through routine exploration.
- Learn a Bible study method that suits you personally.
- Crave the impact daily Bible reading can have on your life.

"Christy Williams is a 'change agent'. Transformation and continuous growth are at the heart of her life and ministry. She helps others to embrace life as an ongoing opportunity to 'live and learn'. She inspires and challenges people to recognize and grab hold to the opportunities God gives us to grow and change in every season of life."

Lucille H. Collins, Women's Ministry Leader, Event Planner, Dallas, TX

"Engaging, thought provoking, and bold are three words to describe my experience with hearing Christy Williams speak. She speaks with authority, commanding the attention of everyone under the sound of her voice. There is no doubt that her words flow eloquently from the channels of heaven-transforming you from the inside out."

What Are You Looking At?

Our eyes are at work from the time we wake up to the time we close them and fall asleep. They gather lots of information, send it to our brains for processing, and we respond accordingly. A similar process is at work in our hearts and souls. We place our trust in certain ideas and respond to the world around us based on that trust. This message will help you:

- Know when it's safe to trust and smart to walk away.
- Gain security by turning your attention to God, the most valuable reality.
- Be victorious when faced with temptation.
- Break the chains of distractions by focusing on growing closer to God.

Oops... I lost it!

Have you ever been smack- dab in the middle of something you were good at, sincere about, and committed to, then looked up and the resources fueling the endeavor were gone? The finances, motivation, or good health was there one minute and nowhere to be found the next. This message will help you

- Replace our tendency to "fly solo" with a heightened appreciation for accountability.
- Exchange worry for the peace of God's presence.
- Experience comfort after a loss.
- Breathe easier because faith is a gift from God that He'll retrieve.
- Dismiss a spiritually dull, idle and indifferent mentality and ignite the sharp, productive and responsive power within.

I Am a Full-Figured Woman

Indulge. Go back for seconds, even thirds. Gain more. Now, we all know what this will lead to physically: growth. While we may not want this on for hips, we surely want it for our hearts. This message will help you

- Grow in your faith by learning some basic Bible study methods.
- Gain confidence in your ability to apply scripture and keep from drifting.
- Stand firm on God's truths by feasting on His word rather than fasting from it.
- Enjoy a full, solid, and more abundant relationship with God.
